Chef Suzanne Tracht worked at the Hotel Bel-Air and Campanile before opening LA's JAR restaurant—her take on the modern chophouse—in 2001. Taste her inventive cuisine as a part of the Bon Appétit Supper Club aboard the Silver Shadow, sailing November 18.

Bon Voyage and Bon Appétit

Adventure on the high seas, a trip through the Panama Canal, and an exclusive limited-time restaurant with meals by a famous LA chef. Plan now to set sail on Silversea's luxury cruise aboard the Silver Shadow from LA to Ft. Lauderdale, November 18 through December 3. As part of the Bon Appétit Supper Club, celebrated chef Suzanne Tracht of LA's JAR on Beverly Boulevard will prepare meals in the ship's exclusive restaurant, La Terrazza. In addition, cruisers can take classes from the onboard Viking Cooking School and learn recipes and techniques that are influenced by the ship's itinerary. The ship passes through the Panama Canal and stops in Puerto Vallarta and Acapulco, Mexico; Puerto Quetzal, Guatemala; and Cartagena and Santa Marta, Colombia. Fares range from $8,795 to $29,995. Call 800-722-9955 or visit www.silversea.com for more information. ■

The Silver Shadow also boasts the Viking Cooking School, where participants view hands-on demos and learn to cook dishes influenced by the ship's ports of call.
